PLATFORM Expands Reach Across Alberta & Western Canada with New Calgary Office

Platform Insurance Management Inc. ("PLATFORM"), a leading P&C insurance brokerage with a vertical focus on Construction, Infrastructure and Development, is excited to announce the opening of a new office in Calgary, Alberta. This expansion is a significant milestone in PLATFORM's strategic growth plan, furthering their commitment to providing localized expertise and tailored solutions for clients nationwide.

LEADERSHIP ACROSS ALBERTA

Overseeing PLATFORM's operations across Alberta, will be led by Fraser de Walle, an industry veteran with a notable background in construction. Joining him are Stephanie Kuntz, Colin Hasick and Mitchell Taylor (based in Edmonton), who bring extensive experience and deep expertise in the construction risk sector from their previous roles. Their leadership and knowledge will ensure PLATFORM delivers the highest standards of service and innovation that their clients have come to expect.

Industry specialists Deanna Walker and Barbara Murphy, also joining the team, will further solidify and expand PLATFORM's reach in the province. With their strong reputations in the construction risk sector, they will serve clients across Alberta and Canada.

COMMITMENT TO LOCALIZED EXPERTISE

The expansion into Alberta underscores PLATFORM's dedication to offering personalized and locally-informed insurance solutions. The team will focus on serving the unique needs of the construction and development sectors in Alberta, leveraging their comprehensive understanding of the local market to provide exceptional service and innovative risk management strategies. Fraser de Walle commented, "We are thrilled to bring PLATFORM's renowned expertise and client-focused approach to Calgary. Our team is dedicated to delivering customized insurance solutions that address the specific challenges and opportunities of the Alberta market."
